EDWARD REYNOLDS, EDITOR.

MIDDLETOWN, DEL.

SATURDAY MORNING, NOV. 21, 1874.

NOW FOR 1876.

FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES,

HON. THOMAS F. BAYARD,

OF DELAWARE.

Nomination subject to endorsement by the Democratic National Convention of 1876.

NOTICE.—Persons who are indebted to us—and where people owe they know it—will greatly oblige us by calling and settling their accounts or by remitting the amounts due by mail.

THE NEW CONGRESS.—During Mr. Johnson's administration an act of Congress was passed to call every new Congress on the 4th of March. This act was continued after President Grant came in until after the meeting of the Forty-second Congress, in 1871. It was then repealed, and the Forty-fourth Congress, elected chiefly last week, cannot meet until the first Monday in December, 1875, unless called in extra session by President Grant, which is not likely.

Now that the election is over and nothing can be gained or lost by denying their true sentiments, some of the Republicans are beginning to show the cloven foot and to expose their true principles (?) The first act is a letter in the Wilmington Republican advocating the perfect equality of the white and negro races, in schools, hotels and everywhere else. The poor miserable wretch who wrote the letter was, of course, ashamed to use his own name in its publication, but uses that of Chas Sumner instead.

When, during the campaign, the Democrats said, if the Republicans were successful they would pass the Civil Rights bill, our opponents pronounced it a slander and declared there was not a Republican in Delaware in favor of it. Presto! change!

Ir! Ir! Ir!—This is about the sum total of the Commercial's labored attempt to subvert the estimate made by the TRANSCRIPT of the probable status of the next Presidential electoral college. That estimate was based upon the present political complexion of the States as evinced in the late elections. The Commercial argues that we are wrong because if certain States should happen to go Republican, the majority of the electoral votes would be in favor of that party. With equal grace we might say, if all the States go Democratic the candidate of that party would be elected unanimously.

We claimed only such States as have given Democratic majorities in the last two or three elections, giving our opponents the benefit of all the States which have been in the habit of voting in their favor until the last election, including Nevada, notwithstanding the fact that the Democratic candidate for Governor, Bradley, was elected by a large majority on the 3rd inst.

However, all our figures are only estimates, and the future is most too uncertain to render any estimates or calculations, that may be now made, very sure, but we cannot help thinking that the die of Republicanism is cast, and that the Democratic party will possess the control of the government after the centennial elections.

Peninsula Press Association.

A few months ago a proposition was made by the editors of the several papers of Salisbury, Md., in regard to forming an Editorial Association, to be composed of all the newspaper publishers of the peninsula. The suggestion seeming to meet with favor from various editors, formal invitations were sent to all the newspaper men of the peninsula to meet at Salisbury on Wednesday the 18th. Accepting the invitation, quite a number gathered in the office of the Salisbury Advertiser on Wednesday evening, and after effecting a temporary organization by the selection of B Everett Smith, of the Snow Hill Shield, as chairman, and E. Reynolds, of the Middletown TRANSCRIPT, as secretary, it was formerly resolved to form a Press Association for the Peninsula, and the following committee, under a resolution offered by Wm. T. Croasdale, of Wilmington Every Evening, for the purpose, was appointed to report, at a subsequent meeting, a constitution for the proposed Association: Messrs. Croasdale, Malone, of Salisbury Advertiser, and Richardson, of Salisbury Eastern Shoreman.

J. M. Emerson, of Wilmington Commercial, also moved the appointment of a committee to prepare and present business at the next meeting. Agreed to, and Messrs. Emerson, Merrill, of Newtown Record and Gazette, and Williams, of Dover Reporter, appointed said committee.

At a second meeting held on Thursday morning, Mr. Croasdale reported a constitution from the committee appointed for that purpose, which was read and adopted in the customary manner, and the following officers elected under it:

President—H. M. Jenkins, of the Wilmington Commercial.

Vice President—J. M. Williams, of the Dover Reporter.

Secretary—A. L. Richardson, of the Salisbury Eastern Shoreman.

Treasurer—E. G. Polk, of the Princess Anne True Marylander.

The Association then adjourned to meet in Wilmington on Wednesday, December 30, 1874.

Current Literature.

SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY.—The new volume of this most excellent magazine begins with the November number.—Those who have been readers of Scribner's during the past year need no persuasion to induce them to renew their subscription. The new volume will, if possible, be better and more entertaining and interesting than its predecessors, as the publishers have made arrangements by which they have secured some of the best writers of the country to furnish contributions for its pages. Through the liberality of the publishers we are enabled to offer this magazine in connection with the TRANSCRIPT at the greatly reduced rate of $5.00 for both, postage pre-paid. The regular price of the magazine being $4.00.

We have already secured subscriptions sufficient to form one club, and cordially invite our readers to take advantage of these liberal terms and procure a fund of choice reading for the ensuing winter evenings. There are no "Club Rates" to Scribner's.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE for December, a magnificent number, is before us, fully vindicating its claim to be "the best and cheapest" It has two superb steel plates, a mammoth colored fashion plate, and a Berlin pattern in colors that is alone worth the price of the number. "Peterson" gets better and better; and always keeps its promises. It contains, every year, 14 steel plates, 12 double-size colored fashion plates, 12 Berlin patterns, 24 pages of music, 800 wood engravings, and more than 100 original stories; and all this for only two dollars a year, the postage pre-paid by the Publisher. Its writers are the very best, its illustrations always of rare beauty, and its fashions the prettiest, latest, and most reliable. Every lady ought to take "Peterson." To clubs the prices are astonishingly low, viz.: three copies for $4.80, (postage pre-paid by the Publisher,) with a superb mezzotint (21 inches by 26)—"Washington's First Interview with His Wife"—to the person getting up the club; or five copies for $8.50, (postage also pre-paid,) and both an extra copy and the premium engraving to the person getting up the club. For large clubs the prices are even lower. Specimens of the Magazine are sent, gratis, if written for, to get up clubs with. On all subscriptions for 1875 the Publisher pre-pays the postage. Address Charles J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

The Twentieth Ward "White" Republican Association and the "Nigger."

An adjourned meeting of the Twentieth Ward "White" Republican Association, which was largely attended, was held last evening at Hartzell's Hall, Pennsylvania avenue.

S. S. Cowan, President, called the meeting to order, and the minutes of the last meeting, November 6, were read by the Secretary, A. G. Cadwaller, and approved. The following resolutions were introduced and adopted:

Resolved, That this organization shall be known as the Twentieth Ward "White" Republican Association. Its officers shall consist of a president, secretary and treasurer. The President shall appoint a committee of five as an executive of finance, who shall, with the President and the officers, serve for a period of one year of twelve months. The object of the organization shall be for the purpose of consolidating the white Republican vote of the Twentieth ward, and to add strength to the Republican party, and to support for elective offices, municipal and State, men of well-known Republican principles, sterling integrity, honesty and sobriety.

Resolved, That this organization shall in no manner conflict or interfere with the regular Republican Association of the ward, but will cheerfully harmonize and act for the success of Republicanism with that association.

Mr. G. M. Smith addressed the meeting in a speech of considerable length. The platform, he said, must either be distinctly defined or the association disbanded. Continuing, Mr. Smith said that the "nigger" vote in the future would be for sale, as it had been in the past. [Applause.] The Twentieth ward Republicans had relied in the past upon the negroes, and been deceived. [Cheers.] It was necessary to let these "niggers" know that the Republicans intend to redeem the ward. There must not be any hesitating about the matter; there must be no middle ground. They must define distinctly their position. The speaker was ready to go on as the association had begun. [Applause.] The association was at enmity against these "low-lived niggers," whose votes could be bought for twenty-five cents apiece. [Applause.]

Other speakers addressed the meeting in a similar strain, and the utterances of sentiments antagonistic to any further affiliation with the negroes were enthusiastically applauded.

On motion, the Executive Committee was requested to secure a hall for permanent meetings of the association in the future, after which the meeting adjourned.—Baltimore Gazette.

Official majorities on the State ticket were announced from the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth at Harrisburg, Thursday, as follows:—Latta, 4679; Temple, 4084; McCandless, 4625.

John D. White, member of Congress elect from Kentucky, will be the youngest member of the House of Representatives, having barely attained his twenty-sixth year.

The Chicago extension of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad having been completed, trains began to run regularly between Baltimore and Chicago on Monday.

It is reported from Texas that the continued fine weather last month added 60,000 bales, worth $3,000,000, to the cotton crop of that State.

Rev. John Scarborough, of Trinity Church, Pittsburg, has been elected Bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Southern New Jersey.

Over three feet of snow fell at Creemore, Ontario, Friday night and Saturday.

Letter from New Castle.

NEW CASTLE, DEL., Nov. 19, '74.

Dear Transcript:—According to promise, I will send you a few jottings of such matters of interest, happening during Court's session, as shall fall under my observation.

On Monday morning the courts were opened in due form; present—Justices Wootten, Houston and Wales, the first presiding, in the absence of Chief Justice Gilpin, who was detained by the double affliction of personal illness and the death of his wife. The first business in order was the reading of the commissions of Attorney General Pennington, and of Sheriff Lambson. Next the Grand Jury was impannelled, charged and sent to their room. Let me have permission to say, here, that I was particularly struck by the appearance of the gentlemen composing that jury. It certainly is rare to see a more intelligent or respectable body of men, judging by appearance, than the gentlemen who constitute the Grand Inquest of New Castle County, at this time. The petty jury having then been called and the necessary bailiffs appointed, Courts were organized, and proceeded to business. So far, minor cases of a criminal character only, have been tried. True bills have been found, for murder, against Woodward, who killed young Lukens, and Taylor, for killing Mackey. There is great interest felt in these cases, especially in Woodward's, for whom considerable sympathy is felt, by all who know how the farmers near the cities are annoyed, vexed and bedevilled by the gamins, who, like a set of Arabs, rob and harrass the peaceful and industrious neighbors. Taylor's case was set for trial to-morrow, and Woodward's next week, but an arrangement has been effected whereby the order of trial has been transposed, and Woodward's will commence to-morrow.

The liquor license cases have not yet been touched, and no one seems to know when they will be examined. It is a hardship upon a large number of those worthy citizens who are brought here, daily, to the injury of their business, and kept in a state of anxious suspense. There is an impression abroad that the Court will delay these cases until the health of Judge Gilpin is sufficiently restored to enable him to preside.

I have been particularly pleased with the dignity and ease of manner which characterize Judge Wootten as presiding Judge. The new Attorney General is, as far as I can learn, giving entire satisfaction, and his intelligence, promptness and industry give assurance of thorough fitness for the position to which he has been appointed.

Courts adjourned last evening, until Friday, in respect to Judge Gilpin, and to enable the judges and lawyers to attend Mrs. Gilpin's funeral, which will take place to-day. Much sympathy is entertained and expressed for the venerable and honored Chief Justice in his present sore bereavement.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Church will give a "Bazaar" to-night and to-morrow night, for the benefit of their handsome church edifice which has recently been extensively repaired and improved. We wish them abundant success in their laudable enterprise.

MORE ANON

WILMINGTON, DEL., Nov. 18, '74.

In the effect of the late elections the people of the United States have set the seal of disapprobation upon the Administration and its party; they have conclusively spoken the words of doom, and the late victory was the deathknell of that party, who knew no law but might; who regarded no Constitution but the force of arms; who conceded no rights to a minority, save those the majority saw fit to accord them; who regarded themselves as the supreme dictators of what was the country's good, (or rather that which kept the Republican party in power, the embodiment of loyalty, wisdom, morality; hence the country's benefactor) but "vox populi," has resounded throughout our land, and once again have the hopes of the true lovers of their country become bouyant, as State after State has answered the roll call and sent in their handsome majorities in favor of the Constitution, the supremacy of law, and the rights of all mankind. And what next? Shall the party coming into power in 1875 sit down supinely under the vast accommodation of corrupt legislation, and since it has the guise of law, make no attempt to remove the unjust act, because forsooth the Democratic party is on trial before the country? The Democratic party is not on trial. She was tried years ago; she was tried through the days of Jefferson, Jackson, and others with but 4 years and one month intermission, and the country was prosperous. Out of debt, growing and great. In an evil hour, the opponents to the Democratic party got possession of the Government and then began the dark days in our nation's history; the setting aside of the Constitution; overturning of States; the civil war and its out-croppings; the disfranchisement of whitemen; enfranchisement of negroes; personal liberty bills; enforcement acts; and lastly, the feather so gently placed by Sumner. "The Civil Rights bill," on the back of Republican party, and now the poor old broken-backed party, squirming about in its agony tells us "You are on trial; the people will not submit to your destroying our record; if you submit to what has been done you may retain your hold of power, &c." Well, the Democracy need no such advice. The people have turned to them in their hour of greatest need, and we will not fail them. Let our party act the part of a good physician—probe the wound to the bottom—repeal the enforcement act first, and then test the legality of negro suffrage, the National Banking act, and every other measure created by the dying Republican party to merely perpetuate their hold upon the Government, by prudence, firmness, and unflinching integrity to the country's interests and the people's good. Order can be brought out of chaos and the Democracy again manage the affairs of the nation to the advantage of the country and people. R.

It is stated from Washington that a well known Philadelphia firm, which has been importing an article under the impression that it was on the free list, has just ascertained that it was dutiable, and will have to pay the Government $15,000. The mistake is attributed chiefly to the ignorance of the Philadelphia Custom House officials, as there was no attempt at concealment, much less smuggling."

General News.

At Salisbury, N. C., last week two negro men went to the house of an old citizen supposed to have a large sum of money on hand, and demanded his cash. Being refused, one of them fired at the gentleman, and slightly wounded him in the face. The old man's wife, who is over fifty years of age, then struck the assailant on the head with a spade and killed him on the spot.

Mr. Daniel N. Haskell, of the Boston Transcript, died in Boston last week of pneumonia. He was for more than twenty years managing editor of the Transcript, and proved himself a journalist of rare ability, independence and discretion, as well as a good and honest man

A letter from Havana, dated the 7th inst, gives a report that the insurgents had captured and burned the town of San Geronimo in the Central Department, and killed most of its garrison, comprising 130 militia and about 75 volunteers.

Bishop Cummins, of the Reformed Episcopal Church, preached in New York last Sunday evening, on "The failure of the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church to meet the responsibilities of the crisis."

Navigation is closing on the inner Lakes. The mail steamer Ontario has been stopped by ice in the Buckham Narrows, and the steamer Vanderbilt has had to cut through the ice on the Lindsay river.

The committee of creditors of Jay Cooke & Co., have issued notice of a meeting to be held in Philadelphia December 1, when they will present a schedule of assets and then proceed to declare a dividend in cash.

LECTURE.

The present Rector of St. Anne's church, Rev W. C. Rutler, delivered, two years ago, in Louisville, Ky., two historical lectures—one on "The Papacy" and the other on the "Presbyterian System."

They were pronounced by high critical authority to be "master pieces of earnest, scholarly, convincing thought, sustained throughout by a vigorous presentation, and calculated to clear away much rubbish from some of the most stirring questions of the day." An incident in connection with their delivery is worthy of note. The Courier Journal, of Louisville, the foremost daily of the West, obtained the consent of the lecturer to publish the lectures in its columns. Accordingly the manuscript of the first—on the Papacy—was furnished, after its delivery, to appear in the next morning's issue. It was hurried to the office, set up in type and when, at midnight, the press was about to send forth the lecture to the readers of the Journal, the editor in chief, who was brought up under Roman Catholic influence, rushed, at that hour, to the press room, and, as those who witnessed it affirmed, most excitely ordered the type of the lectures to be upset. No explanation was given to the subordinates, nor apology to the lecturer. But it was afterwards suggested by gentlemen who endeavored to ascertain the reason of this summary suppression, that it was either ordered or purchased by the paramount power that is ruling and ruining the Roman church of today—Jesuitism—a power whose vigilance is tireless, whose resolution is inflexible, and which counts any labor light and any cost cheap which can be made to further its objects.

The author was repeatedly requested to furnish the other lecture—on "The Presbyterian System" for publication in the same paper, but declined, except on condition that both lectures should appear. The consequence was that no Roman Catholic read the lecture on "The Papacy."

The Rev Mr Butler proposes to deliver these two lectures, at an early day in the Town Hall.

A Substitute for Quinine.

For years, quinine was regarded as the only specific for malarious diseases, and immense quantities of the drug were annually consumed throughout our western country, more particularly along the river bottoms and adjoining low lands

With the fall months malaria, in all its varied forms, stalks like an epidemic through the land, and whole districts are prostrated with chills and fever, the entire population shaking with ague. Heretofore, quinine was regularly resorted to; but, while it frequently failed to effect a cure, it invariably deranged the stomach, producing nausea, vertigo and fugitive pains in the head to such an extent that months elapsed ere the system recovered from its effects. These objections to its use were so marked, that the introduction of Mishler's Herb Bitters was hailed as a triumph in medicine. Infinitely more certain in its beneficial effects than quinine, it possessed none of the demerits of that drug. Instead of nauseating, it tones and invigorates the stomach, and while speedily expelling the noxious humors, increases the appetite and facilitates digestion thus rendering the system stronger, and better fitted to resist the attacks of disease. In fact, a judicious use of Mishler's Herb Bitters at this season of the year, will prevent the recurrence of this disease, even in those who have never passed an autumn without it. An experience of twenty years proves it to be the greatest ANTI-PERIODIC known to medical science.

There are, perhaps, no diseases so subject to climatic changes as affections of the Kidneys. Hundreds of our farmers, mechanics, and laboring men, strong and hardy in all other respects, suffer continual inconvenience, and occasionally excruciating pains in the back and across the loins; experience a frequent desire to pass water, pain during its passage, and frequent stoppages in its flow. These are manifestations resulting from some strain or heavy lift (perhaps years ago), and aggravated by every change in the weather. Every slight cold flies direct to this one weak spot, and unless promptly attended to the disease becomes chronic, and the once strong man a miserable wreck. Mishler's Herb Bitters is the only certain remedy for this class of diseases. It has a peculiar tendency to the kidneys, stimulates them to healthy action, and removing the cause, prevents the formation of brick-dust deposits, which, if permitted to continue, will by cohesion form gravel stone, necessitating a painful operation for its removal. Many of the ingredients entering into its composition, are universally recognized as specifics for all complaints of the urinary organs. In Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, all disorders of the Bowels, and affections of the Throat and Lungs, it is equally certain and efficacious; while, as a remedy for the complaints peculiar to the female sex, it has no equal. LADIES, old and young, married and single, in every condition of life, will find this GREAT FEMALE REMEDY prompt, safe, certain and reliable. The pale, sallow complexion is replaced by a blooming, healthful countenance, and its occasional use enables Nature to perform her functions REGULARLY AND WITHOUT INCONVENIENCE. Sold only in bottles by all Druggists and general dealers.

Miscellaneous.

Have You Tried JURUBEBA?

ARE YOU

Weak, Nervous or Debilitated?

ARE you so languid that any exertion requires more of an effort than you feel capable of making?

Then try JURUBEBA, the wonderful tonic and invigorator, which acts so beneficially on the secretive organs as to impart vigor to all the vital forces.

It is no alcoholic appetizer, which stimulates for a short time, only to let the sufferer fall to a lower depth of misery, but it is a vegetable tonic acting directly on the liver and spleen.

It regulates the Bowels, quiets the nerves, and gives such a healthy tone to the whole system as to soon make the invalid feel like a new person.

Its operation is not violent, but is characterized by great gentleness; the patient experiences no sudden change, no marked results, but gradually his troubles

"Fold their tents, like the Arabs,
And silently steal away."

This is no new and untried discovery, but has been long used with wonderful remedial results, and is pronounced by the highest medical authorities, "the most powerful tonic and alterative known." Ask your druggist for it. For sale by Odessa Items.

Game is now plentiful, but hard to procure.

Our merchants have large stocks of goods for the winter trade.

A desided improvement has been made in Sixth street, between High and Osborne streets; which improvement has long been needed.

The truckers have nearly finished their work, and the nurserymen have arrived at their season—suitable for cleaning up their tracts of land.

Thanksgiving service will be held in the M. E. Church, and the address will be delivered by Dr. Crowell, of Drawyer's Church.

Mr. Finley has two valuable cows from which he raised two calves apiece, and during last year sold the same calves for $20. He also obtained milk during the whole year from the cows (with an exception of two weeks) "How's that for profit?"

Rev. A. J. Carney preached to a small audience in the street on Tuesday afternoon, upon the "United Christian Church Doctrine," and was heartily endorsed by many of the spectators. This is quite novel in a country town, but his coming was so unexpected that publicity was not given it to a sufficient extent to call a large audience.

HEXICON.

Minor Topics.

New Castle was treated to some street preaching last Sunday.

Wilmington has fruit trees in full bloom.

The weather was pretty cold last Sunday and Monday, but soon moderated.

The continued drouth has made the roads as dry and dusty as midsummer

The editor is away this week attending the "Press Convention" at Salisbury.

The Milford Democrats wound up the campaign with a "torch-light procession." So the Commercial says.

A canal boat, loaded with corn, sank in the canal below St. Georges last Monday.

The Middletown merchants have laid in a big lot of goods for the coming winter, and are still buying more.

The owners of it, whoever they are, have opened a new entrance way into the "diving bell," (that's what Clayte calls it) on North Broadway.

Mrs. Eleanora, wife of Chief Justice Gilpin, died at her residence, in Wilmington, last Monday. The Chief Justice, himself, is very ill.

Candidates for the various offices within the gift of the new Governor and the Levy Court are plenty, and on the increase.

H. J. Terry, Esq., one of New Castle's oldest and best known citizens, died suddenly, of paralysis, last Sunday morning. Mr. Terry had been cashier of New Castle bank for over forty years

The list of licenses issued by the clerk of the Peace of this county, within the past year is published on our first page this week, greatly to the detriment of reading matter. However it only comes once a year.

Runaway and Upset.

On Saturday night last a Mr. Barnes was driving quietly down Broad street, when he was met and run into at the corner of Main & Broad, by a carriage occupied by two young men, which it is said, was going rather faster than six miles an hour. Mr. Barnes' horse became frightened at the collision and ran away overturning the carriage, depositing the inmates, Mr. B. and two ladies, unceremoniously upon the ground, and breaking a shaft. No other, or very little more, harm was done, and the horse was caught near Church Hill.

Stormy.

Sakes John, how it rains and you going out,
You'll surely get wet to the skin."
Now dame there's no need to put yourself out
For this Coat I shall put myself in,
I fear not the rain, though in torrents it fall,
Nor by Winters' cold blast am dismayed,
I get all my Clothes from the famed Tower Hall,
And can face any storm thus arrayed.

Court Proceedings.

NEW CASTLE, Nov. 16.

The Courts of Oyer and Terminer and General Sessions of the Peace and Jail Delivery opened this morning, at 10.30 A. M., Judges Wootten, Houston, and Wales on the bench, the former presiding, the Chief Justice being absent on account of sickness.

The commission of John B. Pennington, as Attorney General, was read. The Grand Jury list was called and they retired to their room—The commission of Wm H. Lambson as Sheriff was read The roll of Justices of the Peace was called and the usual baliffs were appointed. The General Jury list was then called, and some unimportant cases continued from last Court, were retired by the Attorney General.

A great portion of the morning was occupied with the taking of the affidavits of applicants for liquor license.

At 12.35 the Grand Jury returned true bills against George Gilbert, negro, for the larceny of a mare from Wm. Rothouse, August 1st, 1874, and James Walters, indicted for an assault and battery. Gilbert was arraigned and pleaded "not guilty," when his case was continued until he could have witnesses summoned. Walters pleaded "not guilty." True bills were also found in the case of Daniel Gooden, Sr., larceny of turkeys from Jeremiah Springer, and Clayton Earle, Sr., and Clayton Earle Jr., for the larceny of corn from Samuel Carlisle, of Christiana Hd.

At 12:40 p. m. the Court took a recess until 3, p. m., at which hour the Grand Jury was called and retired. The Court took up the case of the State vs., James Walters, assault and battery. The Jury was empanelled and testimony was elicited showing that in September last Walters committed an unprovoked assault and battery on Geo. Erwin, in his "own castle," by knocking him down and kicking him. Erwin is a barber on Church street. Jury, after being absent a few moments returned a verdict of "guilty." Sentence—pay a fine of $10 00, costs of prosecution and one month's imprisonment.

State vs. George Gilbert was next called. The witnesses sent for in the morning could not be found, and the State witnesses having absented themselves, attachments were issued for them.

At 4.50, the Grand Jury returned true bills against John Blake, for burglary, Benton L. Hauser, for stealing a horse and wagon, Henry H. Wilson, negro, for stealing Samuel Townsend's cochin china rooster, and his Brahma hen. All pleaded "not guilty."

State vs. Henry H. Wilson. The Jury was empannelled. After hearing testimony from Messrs. Samuel and John Townsend, to the effect that the defendant was caught with one of Mr Townsend's chickens in his possession, the jury retired and after a few minutes absence returned a verdict of "guilty." Sentence—pay $2 50 restitution money, costs of prosecution, on Saturday next to receive 15 lashes, six months imprisonment and six months to wear a convict's jacket.

Court adjourned at 5.45 P. M.

TUESDAY.—State vs. George Gilbert, (neg.) Indicted for horse stealing.—Accused lived with Wm. Rothouse In August last he had a political quarrel with Mr. R. and was discharged. To be even "wid de white man" the "colored citizen" stole a mare from his employer and traded her off to Morris Weldie for another which he sold to another man. The jury found him guilty and the Court sentenced him to pay $250 restitution money and costs, stand in pillory one hour, receive 20 lashes and repent in jail 2 years. Thus political freedom was a great blessing to that darkey.

The next case was State vs. Daniel Gooden (neg.) indicted for the larceny of 6 turkeys from Jeremiah Springer of Christiana Hd. The evidence proved that both parties raised turkeys. In October, Springer missed six of his turkeys, and claimed that they were among Gooden's. He thereupon took six from the latter's flock, but the colored had no notion of having his property thus appropriated and opened Mr S's coop and let the turkeys return to his fold. He was then arrested, by order of his neighbor, for stealing the turkeys. The jury, however, did not think there was any theft and rendered a verdict of "not guilty," and let Daniel go home.

True bills were found by the Grand Jury against Aaron K. Woodward and Joseph H. Taylor, for murder in the first degree.

Woodward was also indicted for assault with intent to kill John Skelley, the boy who was injured at the same time that the boy Lukens was killed.

At the afternoon session, Woodward was formally arraigned for the murder of Wm. T. Lukens, on the 6th of October last, and plead "not guilty."—The prisoner manifested a great deal of feeling, his voice trembling as he gave his answers to the usual questions. He will be defended by Hon. T. F. Bayard and W. C. Spruance.

Joseph H. Taylor was arraigned for the murder, by drowning, of Robert A. Mackey, at Drawyer's Creek, July 26th last, and pleaded "not guilty." His counsel are Bayard and Whiteley.

Clayton Earle, Sr., and Clayton Earle, Jr., were arraigned for stealing a bushel of corn from Samuel Carlisle in October. Verdict "guilty," and the senior Earle sentenced to pay 50 cents and costs; get 12 lashes, 6 months imprisonment and a convict's jacket for 6 months more. The boy was discharged, on the ground that he was a minor and supposed to be acting under the control of his father.

Shadrach Trusty (neg.) was convicted of having stolen a pocket-book with $47 from Charles Wentz, last July, and sentenced to pay $7.21 costs, get 20 lashes, six months in jail, and wear convict's jacket six months. Edward Saunders (Neg.) was convicted of having received the money stolen by Trusty, and sentenced to pay $57 21 costs, one hour in pillory, 2 years in jail, and convict's jacket six months.

John T. Dolson stole a valuable mare from Wm. H. Reynolds, near Newark, last June, and was requested by the court to pay $2 70 costs, stand in pillory one hour, receive 20 lashes and spend three years with the sheriff

WEDNESDAY.—State vs John Hanley and Amos Dubois. Assault with intent to rob Owen Hanem, in Wilmington, Nov. 12, 1874. Verdict "guilty." Hanem sentenced to pay $200 fine, costs, and stay in jail 2 years. Dubois is to pay $300 fine, costs, and stay with the sheriff 3 years

Charles Brown (neg.) stole a suit of clothes from Manuel Ferguson, last August, and blacked the latter's eye when accused of the theft. The court told him to pay Ferguson $18 50 for the clothes, costs of prosecution, take 20 lashes and remain in jail one year and wear a striped jacket six months after he comes out

Several more petty cases were disposed of, and the Grand Jury reported true bills against several prisoners, among which was one against Wm. Thomas for assault with intent to kill John P. Cochran, Esq., at the polls in Odessa in 1870.

The bond of H. F. Pickels, in which he became security for the appearance of Thos Piner (negro) arrested on the charge of illegal voting, was forfeited, the colored voter having taken leg-bail. Democrats won't regret Mr. Pickels loss much.

At 6.15 P. M. the court adjourned until Friday morning, out of respect to Chief Justice Gilpin, whose wife was buried on Thursday.

Street Preaching.

A man, whose name we did not learn as we did not seek to, visited Middletown on Tuesday, and regaled the good people thereof with what he was pleased to style a sermon, in the street, using a dry goods box as his pulpit, or stump. He denounced the large salaries received by many of the popular clergymen of the day, intimating that the salary was the chief object of their ministry. He dwelt at some length upon his own merits and modesty, saying that he went about for the good of his fellow-men asking nothing for what he did, and taking what is given him. He evidently forgets the scripture formula that "the workman is worthy of his hire."

Fire in New Castle.

The stables attached to the hotels of George Whitfield and Joseph Yarnall, in New Castle, with their contents, were destroyed by fire last Sunday night. The fire broke out about 11 o'clock and spread so rapidly that nothing could be saved but the horses. Both hotels, the Town Hall, and the dwelling houses of Messrs. Giles Lambson and C. M. Wise, caught fire, and for a time a serious conflagration was threatened, but the fire was happily extinguished before much damage was done. The loss is estimated at about $1,000 with $330 insurance. The work of incendiaries, of course.

An Intelligent Dog.

L. P. McDowell, of this town, is the owner of a Shepherd's dog of rare intelligence. His acts of sagacity are many and varied. One day last week Mr. M. received a large invoice of sheep per the Delaware Rail Road, and was busily engaged in removing them from the cars, when he heard the train approaching, and near at hand. He turned to look for his sheep, which were scattered over the railroad, fearing to see many of them run over by the cars, but Printer, the dog, had driven them all from the track, and out of the reach of danger as soon as the train first appeared in sight.

Protracted Meeting.

A religious revival commenced last Sunday evening, and is now in progress in the M. E. Church, of this town. On Tuesday evening there were seven forward to the altar, and the number on Wednesday was increased to eleven. Dr. Matlack occupies the pulpit, and has done the church credit by his forcible style of preaching. Great interest is manifested, and much good is expected from these meetings. L.

Church Supper.

The ladies of Bethel and Summit charge, intend holding a Thanksgiving Festival and supper, at Bethel M. E Church, on Thursday, 26th inst. Supper from 4 to 10 o'clock P. M. From the well-known reputation of the ladies of Bethel and Summit in such matters, the public may expect a rare treat. All are cordially invited to attend Supper 50 cents. MANOR.

Recovering.

We are pleased to state that Rev. T. J. Thompson, Presiding Elder for the Wilmington District, M. E. Church Conference, who has been seriously ill for several weeks past, is now recovering somewhat, and is able to sit up in his room. His speedy regainder of entire health is now hoped for.—Gazette. [Where in the name of Webster and Worcester did the Gazette get that word?]

Maryland Affairs.

On Tuesday of last week the real estate of John F. Newman was sold at Chestertown, as follows:—The Home farm, 255 acres, to Captain A. Woodall, at $55 25 per acre; the Parker farm, 201 acres, to Samuel Hurlock, at $18 per acre, and a wood lot, 35 acres, to John Stevens, at $15 50 per acre.

Codfish have been caught in Choptank river during the past week, and the Easton Ledger says: "It is unusual for the fish to swim in our waters, but as even Massachusetts has lost her identity as a thoroughly republican State they probably thought they were privileged to wander at pleasure hereafter.

The democrats of Wicomico county made great preparations for the grand jubilee that took place at Salisbury, on the 18th instant, and delegations from adjoining counties, in large numbers, were present.

The Snow Hill Messenger says the oystermen are making a nice thing of it in Synepuxent bay. Some have made $12 per day since the commencement of the season, while others have made $7 without trouble.

The Purdy farm, 238½ acres, within one and a half miles of Chesapeake City, Cecil county, was sold last week to Mr. Phillip, of Philadelphia, for $4,850, subject to a prior lien of $1,300.

A number of sheep have recently been killed in the vicinity of the Trappe, Kent county. Messrs. John Brice, George W. Hutchinson and others being the sufferers.

The barn of Mr. James A Hambleton, near St. Michael's, Talbot county, was destroyed by fire last week, together with a lot of wheat and corn.

Mrs Gatzman, wife of Mr. H S. Gatzman, of Crumpton, was struck with paralysis on Wednesday week, and died the same evening.

The grand jury found fifteen criminal indictments at the last term of the Circuit Court for Worcester county.

Special Notices.

BE YOUR OWN PHYSICIAN.

There is no case of Dyspepsia that Green's AUGUST FLOWER will not cure. Go to Chamberlaine, druggist, Middletown, Del.; H. P. Baker, Odessa, and E. W. Jester, St. Georges, and inquire about it. If you suffer from Costiveness, Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Indigestion, Liver Complaint, or derangement of the system, try it. Two or three doses will relieve you.

AGUE CONQUEROR is the only remedy in the United States that contains no Quinine, Arsenic, or other poisons injurious to the system, that will cure Fever and Ague, intermittent or bilious fevers, &c., and the chills not return during the season. It permanently cures Fever and Ague of long standing.

HELP FOR THE HOPELESS. You are weak, dejected, miserable, and nothing does you any good, you say. Don't despair. There is balm in Gilead. Have you tried Vinegar Bitters? No! Then why don't you? Do not insist that such a thing as a vital elixir is impossible before you have tested the proprieties of this marvelous Vegetable Restorative. Whether your complaint be dyspepsia, billiousness, nervous weakness, constitutional debility, or any other trouble, Vinegar Bitters will revive and renovate your shattered system, as a genial rain refreshes the withered flowers.

DR. BOSCHEE'S GERMAN SYRUP.

Cough no more! How much joy there is in every household to know that they can at last procure at once for any case of coughs, severe colds settled on the breast, Consumption or any disease of the Throat and Lungs, that is certain to cure. It is a satisfaction to know that a person is safe from the dangers of these diseases—all you need do, is to go to your druggist, Chamberlaine, Middletown; H. P. Baker, Odessa, and E. W. Jester, St. Georges, Del., and get a bottle of Boschee's German Syrup; two or three doses will relieve you at once. If you doubt what we say in print get a sample bottle for 10 cents and try it, or a regular size for 75 cents.

All who want a good SEWING MACHINE and having the CASH to pay for it, will have inducements offered them at the Great Sewing Machine Depot of A. T. STOOPS, N. E. Cor. A Representative and Champion of America Art Taste!

Prospectus for 1875—Eighth Year.

THE ALDINE,

The Art Journal of America,

ISSUED MONTHLY.

"A Magnificent Conception, wonderfully carried out."

The necessity of a popular medium for the representation of the productions of our great artists, has always been recognized, and many attempts have been made to meet the want.—The successive failures which so invariably followed each attempt in this country to establish an art journal, did not prove the indifference of the people of America to the claims of high art. So soon as a proper appreciation of the want and an ability to meet it were shown, the public at once rallied with enthusiasm to its support, and the result was a great artistic and commercial triumph—The Aldine.

The Aldine, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of The Aldine will be most appreciated after it is bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, The Aldine is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume can not duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then, there is the chromo, besides!

The national feature of The Aldine must be taken in no narrow sense. True art is cosmopolitan. While The Aldine is a strictly American institution, it does not confine itself entirely to the reproduction of native art. Its mission is to cultivate a broad and appreciative art taste, one that will discriminate on grounds of intrinsic merit. Thus, while placing before the patrons of The Aldine, as a leading characteristic, the productions of the most noted American artists, attention will always be given to specimens from foreign masters, giving subscribers all the pleasure and instruction obtainable from the best of foreign sources.

The artistic illustration of American scenery, original with The Aldine, is an important feature, and its magnificent plates are of a size more appropriate to the satisfactory treatment of such subjects than can be afforded by any inferior page. The judicious interspersion of landscape, marine, figure and animal subjects, sustains an unbroken interest, impossible where the scope of the work confines the artist too closely to a single style of subject. The literature of The Aldine is a light and graceful accompaniment, worthy of the artistic features, while only such technical disquisitions as do not interfere with the popular interest of the work.

PREMIUM FOR 1875.

Every subscriber for 1875 will receive a beautiful portrait, in oil colors, of the same noble dog whose picture in a former issue attracted so much attention.

"Man's Unselfish Friend"

will be welcome in every home. Everybody loves such a dog, and the portrait is executed so true to the life, that it seems the veritable presence of the animal itself. The Rev. T. De Witt Talmage tells that his own Newfoundland (the finest in Brooklyn) barks at it! Although so natural, no one who sees this premium chromo will have the slightest fear of being bitten.

Besides the chromo, every advance subscriber to The Aldine for 1875 is constituted a member, and entitled to all the privileges of

THE ALDINE ART UNION.

The Union owns the originals of all The Aldine pictures, which, with other paintings and engravings, are to be distributed among the members. To every series of 5,000 subscribers, 100 different pieces, valued at over $2,500 are distributed as soon as the series is full, and the awards of each series as made, are to be published in the next succeeding issue of The Aldine. The feature only applies to subscribers who pay for one year in advance. Full particulars in circular sent on application enclosing a stamp.

TERMS:

One Subscription, entitling to The Aldine one year, the Chromo and the Art Union,

$6.00 per annum, in advance.

(No charge for postage.)

Specimen copies of The Aldine, 50 cents.

The Aldine will, hereafter, be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rates; cash for subscriptions must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local canvasser, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificate is given, bearing the fac-simile signature of James Sutton, President.

Peach Trees and Plants.

PEACH TREES FOR SALE.

The undersigned, having been engaged a long time in the peach business, has neither spared pains nor expense to secure the best varieties of peaches, the best bearers, the largest peaches, and those that will carry well and bring the most money in market. I am now ready to receive orders for said trees, to be delivered here in the Nursery or on board the cars, this Fall, 1874, and the following Spring. The following are the varieties and the order of ripening:

Ploveden's Red and White Peach. Said to be earlier than Hale's Early, and carries well.

Troth's Early. An old variety, carries well.

Foster Peach, Red and Yellow. New variety, and the largest early peach known.

Crawford's Early.—Genuine stock.

Reeve's Favorite.

Old Mizon.

Stump the World.

Crawford's Late.

Price's Large Red and White.

Delaware White. A fine large white peach.

Townsend's Late Red and White. The finest and largest late red and white peach, ripening same time as Smock. Originated from a seedling that came up in my garden.

Smock. Bear's.

Salway.

Lattomus' Large Late White Seedling. Took 1st premium at Wilmington Exhibition in 1872

Townsend's late White. Similar to Lattomus' and ripens about the same time. They are both the largest white peaches grown, weighing from ½ to ¾ of a pound.

Large Red and White Cling. Large.

Late White Heath Cling.

Large Late Yellow.—October cling.

Benohamp's Large late Transparent. A new variety.

Persons making engagements, can rely on the purity of these trees. One man budded the whole lot, and was careful to make no mistakes, and the utmost care will be observed in taking up, bunching and labeling these trees for delivery. Send in your orders soon. SAMUEL TOWNSEND.

Medical.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing the merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs, and in Bilious Diseases.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

CORNS, BUNIONS.

CORNS.—How they sting, throb, ache, smart and burn, upon our feet. In vain we beg, we threaten, we curse, we flourish the sharpest knives above their heads, we burn, we cut, hack, hew and fell, and still the pesky corns remain a thing of misery. Useless are entreaties, tears, curses, groans; nothing can remove our corns but Briggs' Alleviator and Curative, a sure cure for Corns, Bunions, Ingrowing Nails, and all ailments of the feet.

Piles! Piles! PILES, INTERNAL, EXTERNAL, BLEEDING OR ITCHING—The intense suffering occasioned by the disease, in its various forms, is known only to those who are unfortunate enough to be afflicted with it. The sleepless nights, the uncomfortable days, the haggard looks of the sufferer bear witness of the intensity of the pain experienced when troubled with this prevailing dis ease. The success of Briggs' Pile Remedy as a positive cure is unequaled in the annals of medicine. Relief is immediate when used as directed. The immense demand for this great remedy is unparalelled. Thousands are using it with the most satisfactory results.

Headache. Headache, Neuralgia and Nervous Diseases. The wonderful effect of Dr. J. Briggs' Alleviator, for the speedy cure of the above mentioned very prevalent and painful disease, is known to many thousands who have used it with unqualified success. In every case of the above enumerated complaints, it has never failed to give immediate relief.

Consumption. This fatal and dreaded disease can, and has been cured Dr. J. B. Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer is a pleasant, agreeable and sure remedy for Coughs, Whooping Cough, Croup, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Laryngitis, Sore Throat, Asthma, Consumption, and all diseases of the throat, lungs and chest.

CORNS Are the most plentiful kind of grain in the market. Every one has a supply, from the little three-year old child to the aged grandsire verging on to a hundred; stylish, handsome young ladies who daily promenade fashionable resorts; middle-aged matrons; old maids, dressed up to appear young and gay; dandies, with their patent leathers, kid gloves and inevitable walking stick; the clergyman, merchant, lawyer, clerk, artisan and mechanic, of all ages and stations, have a full supply of corns, bunions, bad nails and other botherations of the feet, all of which are banished and cured by the use of Briggs' Corn and Bunion remedies, Alleviator and Curative.

Corns Bunions, Bad Nails and all Diseases of the Feet, Cancers and Scrofulous Humors, Piles, &c., skillfully and successfully treated at the great central Chirropodical and Healing Institute, 697 Broadway, New York.

RHEUMATISM.

A REMARKABLE CURE.

Home Testimony.

Mr. Wm. W. Rees, residing in South Wilmington and employed in the Diamond State Rolling Mill, suffered for nine months with the Rheumatism, and was under medical treatment without much effect during this time.—Sometimes could neither dress or undress, and and would suffer with fearful excruciating pains. Dr. Simms' Celebrated Pain Searcher cured after about four weeks' persistent use; the first bottle gave much relief, the second still more, and at the end of the fifth bottle was entirely well. As a further reference in this case we also refer to Messrs. Parry & Son, toy dealers, &c., King street.

Samuel Pyle, Mail Messenger, a bad case of Rheumatism, was effectually cured by the Pain Searcher.

Daniel R. Higgnutt's son, a boy of 12 years suffered excruciating pains, could not use his legs a particle, yet was able to walk in 24 hours. Two bottles cured in each of these cases. We could give many more references, we have a long list, but we think the above sufficient to convince any one.

THE PAIN SEARCHER

Quickly relieves Cramps and Pains, Neuralgia, Headache, Toothache, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, &c., and in Rheumatism it is certainly a wonderful medicine, not having failed in a single case. Used inwardly and outwardly.

Price 50 cents a bottle, or six for $2.50.

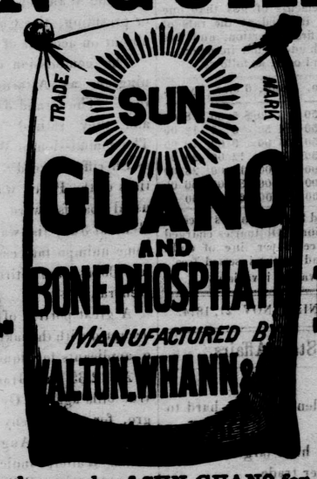
SUN GUANO.

$32 Per Ton.



$32 Per Ton.

The very large sale of SUN GUANO for Spring Crops, and the splendid results achieved by its application, have corroborated our representations of its excellent quality, and established it as the popular fertilizer of the peninsula.

A knowledge acquired by nine years' experience in the manufacture of fertilisers, with the assistance of our skilled Chemist, suggested the formula under which the SUN GUANO is prepared

At our extensive works we manufacture our own Sulphuric Acid and all the materials entering into the composition of the SUN GUANO direct from the rough; satisfied with a reasonable profit for ourselves, and not having to pay any profit to the manufacturers of chemicals, ground bone, and other materials used, we are enabled to offer the SUN GUANO at the extremely low price of and guarantee every ton free from adulteration and fully up to State Chemist's analysis.

Every material used in making the SUN GUANO is a fertilizer of itself, and by the judicious proportion of the different ingredients, we have attained results which make the fertilizer so universally satisfactory to all who have used it

☞We are MANUFACTURERS of fertilizers, and not MIXERS of manufactured articles from other factories, and are not compelled to add sand or other worthless substances to enable us to sell the SUN GUANO at this price.☜

The Sun Guano is in FINE DRILLING condition, and is for sale by all dealers.

The demand will be large for Wheat Seeding, and farmers are requested to order early.

ATTEST.

RICHARD G. COOPER,

PROTHONOTARY.

New Castle, October 6th, 1874.

Another Scene in Max Adeler's Church.

Ours is the most exciting church on the continent. We had hoped to conduct the services in quietness after the last demonstration of our deaf member, Mr. Collamore, but we were disappointed. Young Shooks came to church last Sunday with Miss Jones, and his pet terrier dog came with him and settled on the floor of the pew. Shooks at first thought he would send the animal home, but he didn't like to make a fuss in church, so he let it remain. Miss Jones, however, did not know that the dog was there.

When they stood up to sing, the dog leaped on the seat immediately behind Miss Jones, and when she sat down her whole weight came down upon the terrier. She gave a loud scream and leaped to her feet, while the dog barked, and bit her, and Shooks in a loud voice ordered him to be quiet. There was instant confusion in the church, and old Mr Collamore misunderstanding the cause of it, raised a cry of fire and rushed from the building. A panic ensued, and the congregation made for the door.

A moment afterward an engine arrived, and in a minute it had a three-inch stream playing through one of the windows on the hindmost of the congregation. By the time there were two inches of water on the floor of the church, the matter was explained and the engine went home. The damages will amount to about $400. If Collamore is not suppressed, we shall give up our pew and resign.

A Great Man.

Perhaps the greatest man in the United States now lives in California. He has invented a machine for which nations yet unborn shall reverence his memory, and future paterfamiliases shower down blessings on his head. The machine is nothing more or less than a movable railway, attached to a round or oblong table, which can be operated on by the person who does the carving, and by means of which dishes, condiments, glasses, or any necessary table article can at once be sent to the person served. Think of it, ye victims of untutored Hibernian handmaidenhood! A plate of hash in the twinkling of an eye, a mustard pot quick as an electric flash. No more soup to be dashed into the laps of gros grain silks, or refractory gravy to take the gloss from the broadcloth pantaloons. The emancipated boarding-house keeper may now hang out her banners on the outer walls, defy the female domestic servant, and shout the battle cry of freedom. Behold her seated on her throne of state, around her vessels ranged in hungry rows "Mr. Brown, hash!" Ere Brown can smile acceptance of the same, the majestical foot has touched the spring, and the ancient and dessicated animal food has reached his waistcoat. There is joy in the halls of the newly married, for the reign of Bridget, queen of breakages, is at an end. We know not the name of the inventor. If it be Smith, let him be canonized, St. Smith! we owe you one.

Getting Out of Bed.

Dr. Hall does not approve of the old doctrine which was formerly installed into the minds of children—that they should spring out of bed the instant they awake in the morning. He says, up to eighteen years old, every child should be allowed to rest in bed, after the sleep is over, until they feel as if they had rather get up than not. It is a very great mistake for persons, old or young—especially children or sedentary persons—to bounce out of bed the moment they awake up; all the instincts shrink from it and fiercely kick against it. Fifteen or twenty minutes spent in gradually waking up, after the eyes are opened, and in turning over and stretching the limbs, do as much as sound sleep, because the operation sets the blood in motion by degrees, tending to equalize the circulation—for during sleep the blood tends to stagnation, the heart beat feebly and slowly, and to shock the system by bouncing up in an instant and sending the blood in overwhelming quantities to the heart, causing it to assume a gallop, where the instant before it was a creep, is the greatest absurdity. This instantaneous bouncing out of bed, as soon as the eyes are open, will be followed by a weariness long before noon.

Bishop Doane, formerly Bishop of New Jersey, notwithstanding a manner and exterior somewhat pompous, and which some people mistook for arrogance (as resulting from his ecclesiastical position) was, nevertheless, most highly esteemed by those who knew him best, and who knew that his somewhat stately demeanor was anything but the result of a grovelling pride or ambition. The story goes that, on a certain occasion, the Bishop and an honest old Quaker found themselves travelling on the same steamboat. The Bishop, it seems, had found himself snugly ensconced, from the beginning, in an easy chair, which a cabin functionary had most likely placed for him. The Quaker entering the cabin later found every seat occupied. It so chanced, however, that the Bishop, in a short time, vacated his seat and left the cabin. The Quaker at once appropriated the Bishop's seat, when, the latter returning to the cabin, and to his chair, found Mr. Broadbrim in the full enjoyment of it. The Bishop somewhat peremptorily (it is related) said to the Quaker, "That is my chair." "It was thine," replied the Quaker, "but it is mine now." "Do you know me?" asked the Bishop. "I do not," remarked the Quaker. "My name is Doane—Bishop Doane." "Well," said the Quaker. "I've often heard of thee, but I never saw thee before, and I think less of thee now than ever I did?"

Brooklyn claims the "only amateur daily paper in existence." It is printed on one side of a sheet of paper about eight inches by three, and all the work upon it, literary and mechanical, is done by a boy.

A HOWLING WILDERNESS.

What is now, we believe, a place of some consequence, (we allude to a certain city far west,) was, a number of years ago, (as a matter of course) in its infancy; yet even then preferring its claims to be considered a town, and numbering among its citizens a young "limb of the law," a judge, &c., &c. It would seem a stream of water separated the two sections of the town, so, with a view to public convenience, it was resolved, nemine contradicente, that a bridge to span this audacious stream should at once be erected. The grand design being accomplished, it was next resolved that the event should be duly celebrated on a certain day—that an oration should be delivered—and, in fact, that all other observances appertaining to a public holiday should be gone into. The young lawyer was selected as the "orator of the day;" so, when the thrilling moment arrived, he ascended the "rostrum" (in the shape of a table), not with "a skip and dance" as Cowper describes his young parson to have done, but with all the solemnity and gravity becoming the high occasion. "Silence was pleased." "Ladies and Gentlemen," began the speaker (and you might have heard a pin fall) "the place where we now stand was once a howling wilderness"—here a pause as unexpected as unaccountable intervened, and the audience became agitated—"I repeat" at length continued the orator, "the place where we now stand was once a howling wilderness"—a second pause, but not so protracted as the first, the speaker evidently having discovered that he was occupying a position for which nature had never intended him. He again, however, rapidly repeated (but with an addition by no means complimentary to himself or his audience) "the place where we now stand was once a howling wilderness, and I wish it had remained so."

Ludicrous Scene in a Pulpit.

A South German paper relates the following: "In a Bavarian town of the most pronounced Catholic orthordox, the priest preached lately against the Old Catholics and related such horrible things about them that his hearers were literally horror-stricken at Old Cathlic impieties. At last the paeacher cried out, 'The Old Catholics are so vile that they will all be cast into the pit, and if what I say is not true, may the devil take me on the spot!' His excitement was terrible, and he so struck the cushion that the book fell from it. Not far from the pulpit there sat an American, who had a negro servant with him, to whom he beckoned totake the book up to the priest, who, perhaps, had never seen one of those sons of Ham in his life. The negro at once obeyed, and as he mounted the lowest of the pulpit steps the clergyman repeated his wish, that the devil might come if what he said against the Old Catholics was not true.

"Although the negro went softly, the preacher heard his footsteps, and turning around, saw a black object solemnly, steadily, and surely approaching him. He looked at him in terror, and believing that he would be the next instant by his Satanic Majesty, he cried out, with a trembling voice, 'It is, after all, possible that there may be good peo among the Old Catholics.' Turning around to see if the object had disappeared, he saw it still steadily approaching. The perspiration burst out upon his brow; and full of despair he called out, "There are even many good people among the Old Catholics!" Thinking that this would suffice, he turned around, but what was his horror to find that the object was close at hand. Imagining himself in the very grasp of Beelzebub, turning partly to the negro and partly to the congregation, he cried out, 'May the devil come and take me if all the Old Catholics are not better than we are!' The terrified priest fainted from the fright, and it was only after some time that he recovered."

Who are Your Aristocrats.

Twenty years ago, this one made candles, that one sold cheese and butter, that one butchered, a fourth thrived on a distillery, another was a contractor on canals, others were merchants and mechanics. They are acquainted with both ends of society, as their children will be after them—though it would not do to say so out loud! for often you shall find that these toiling worms hatch butterflies—and they live about a year. Death brings a division of property, and it brings new financiers! The old gent is discharged, the young gent takes his revenues, and begins to travel—toward poverty which he reaches before death, or his children do, if he does not. So that, in fact, though there is a sort of moneyed race, it is not hereditary; it is accessible to all. Three good seasons of cotton, will send a generation of men up—a score of years will bring them all down, and send their children to labor. The father grubs, and grows rich, the children trust, and spend the money. Their children in turn inherit the price and go to shiftless poverty; next their children, reinvigorated by fresh plebeian blood, and by the smell of the clod, come up again. Thus society, like a tree, draws its sap from the earth, changes it into leaves, and spreads them above in great glory, sheds them off to fall back on the earth, again to mingle with the soil, and at length, to reappear in new dress and fresh garniture.

Advice to a Soldier.

"Attention, soldier!" said a Detroit justice, after a long gaze at one of the country's defenders brought before him. "You have charged against the breastworks of justice, and now let's hear your excuse for being found shot in the neck."

"Fust time, yer Honor," pleaded the man.

"And you are repentant?"

"I am."

"And you have made up your mind to let whiskey severely alone after this?"

"I have."

"Well, you can right face, forward march, file right, and take the skirmish line in defense of the cause of temperance. Remember, Joseph, that these little whisky glasses are rifle pits along the front of the enemy's line, and that decanters and demijohns are strong lines of earthworks behind his line of battle. Every invitation from a friend to 'take sunthin' wet' is a rifled fifteen-pounder turned against you, and every drunk is an abattis in favor of Satan's position. Make yourself a commander in the cause of cold water, sage tea, and iced milk. Send out a strong picket, support them with four full companies of infantry and a field piece. If driven in, send down a regiment to hold the line and order up the guns. Then, under cover of the smoke, mass your force to strike his exposed left wing, and send word down the line to unsling knapsacks and go in with the bayonet. You may go, Joseph, but ponder and reflect on these things."

LOCKING THE TOWER.—The tower of London is locked up every night at 11 o'clock. As the clock strikes that hour, the yeoman porter, clothed in a long red cloak, bearing a bunch of keys, and accompanied by a warder carrying a lantern, stands at the front of the main guardhouse and calls out, "Escort keys." The Sergeant of the guard and five or six men then turn out and follow him to the outer gate, each sentry challenging as they pass, with "Who goes there?" the answer being "Keys." The gates being carefully locked and barred, the procession returns, the sentries exacting the same explanations, and receiving the same answer as before. Arrived once more at the front of the main guardhouse, the sentry gives a loud stamp with his foot and asks, "Who goes there?" "Keys." "Whose keys?" "Queen Victoria's keys." "Advance, Queen Victoria's keys, and all's well." The yeoman porter then calls out, "God bless Queen Victoria." To which the guard responds "Amen." The officer on duty gives the word "Present arms," and kisses the hilt of his sword, and the yeoman porter then marches alone across the parade and deposits the keys in the Lieutenant's lodgings.

An old gander was recently killed in Virginia at the age of ninety. The name of the fortunate boarding house that drew the prize is not given.
